One Church at a Time

3 Salvations!!!

This past month we got to see 3 people at our church pray to receive Christ as their Saviour. I was privileged to meet with Jake several times to talk about becoming a Christian and it was wonderful to see him make a decision. We also had a couple named Joe and Sally start meeting with Tarl and I over a month ago. After 6 meetings to talk about Jesus, Tarl was able to lead them to Christ.

Annabelle is Officially a Dual Citizen

We were pleased to be able to head to the American embassy to get Annabelle registered for her citizenship. This girl is only a month old and already has two passports! She is ready to travel.

99 on Easter Sunday

We were so blessed to fill up the church on Easter Sunday with record attendance of 99! It is amazing to see what God has done through this church and it was a great day to celebrate together. It was so amazing to see not only the kids class full but also the teen class too. The difference in just one year is nothing but evidence that God working in London.

My Mother Visited

It was exciting to have my mother come visit for Easter. She not only got a lot of cuddle time with the new grand baby, but she was the guest speaker at our very first ladies brunch which had an amazing 28 ladies in attendance.
