One Church at a Time

American Reception

We were so excited to get to celebrate our marriage with lots of family and friends in America this month. It was so nice to be back in Kansas with all the family and to get to introduce them to Rachel for the first time at our American reception.

Reporting to Churches

We had the opportunity to report to 3 churches so far on our trip back to America and we have 5 more to visit in the next two weeks. I am also glad to announce that one of these churches is joining us with monthly support. Such a huge help for us as we are married now and the expenses are going up.

One Salvation in London

Tarl Reeves, our fellow missionary partner, was able to meet with one of our churches first time guests this month and lead him to the Lord. It is such a huge answer to pray to see someone come to salvation. Please be in prayer for this man as he starts his relationship with Christ and for the many more that will be learning about Christ for the first time.

Belated Honeymoon

September started out with Rachel and I finally getting to go on our honeymoon, since time did not allow for it back in June when we were married. It was so relaxing to be able to take some time in Florida to just rest and enjoy some quiet time together. Thanks to a church in Miami, we were able to use a nice beach front missions apartment too!!!

Don't Forget the New Mission Board

We have switched where your financial support goes to in America to reach us here in London from the BBFI to CMC. If your support was sent back from the BBFI this month then please be sure to make the switch, support can only go to CMC now. You can get the full directions about how and where to send your support on our website at: SavingLondon.com.
